The Finished Work of Christ

Christian Separatism is firmly based upon Christology as opposed to theology. To us, our relationship with the Living God of the universe has always been with the Word of God, for the Word of God was there in the beginning, and it is a Biblical fact that God has always dealt with His mortal children by and through the Word of God. In some of the most ancient targums, the Word of God is also called the Voice of God. This shows clearly that the ancient Israelites understood the Greek concept of Logos not only to mean the Word expressed by the infinite Mind of God, which carries the idea of the purest expression of the sanity, logic, and reason of the Living God, but also to be the very expressed will and person of the infinite Mind we know as God.

Thus, the first Christians understood that the Word was with God, and that the Word was God. What this means in the simple language of men is that their theology was not a claim to know the infinite Mind in a theist or personal sense, but rather to know the Word of God. In other words, God Almighty has always dealt with the Adamic race through the power and presence of His divine attribute known as His Word or Voice, which is understood to be the purest expression of the infinite Mind or Mentality that we know as the Unapproachable God of Lights. What all of this means in simple language is that the early Christians practiced a Christology or knowledge of Christ. That which we call theology, based upon the principles to which it claims to be predicated, has always been of pagan origin.

The idea of understanding the One God, whom His children call God the Father, to be a trinity was a concept that was totally alien to the ancient Israelites but extremely popular among the religions of mongrelization. Yet, the ancient Israelites not only knew God the Father but referred to Him by various designations and names such as Yahweh, Adonia, and El, but they always understood and knew that they were speaking of the one, true God. The ancient Israelites were without question, as is admitted on all sides, monotheistic in their practice of the worship of the Living God, the Father. This monotheism, in ancient times, was the one religious principle that truly separated and distinguished the ancient Israelites from all the other Aryan nations and non-Aryan nations of the ancient world. Other Aryan nations had been seduced by the spirit of Syncretism that had been spawned in the mongrel minds of the fallen Aryans in India, who, as Paul says, had changed the unmongrelizable God into mongrelization.

When the Aryans had swept through Babylon into India and conquered and subjugated the aboriginal Negroes, they, for a long time, knew only the one God that had been worshipped by Aryan man from the beginning. But because of the sin of genocide expressed in race-mixing, a mongrel-class of men of mongrel minds emerged in ancient history. They could no longer conceive of, relate to, or identify with the infinite Mind of the universe known to ancient Aryan man as God the Father. So they went about inventing a god in their own likeness and image, formulating hundreds of mongrelized religious philosophies as race-mixing continued and they gained political power.

They institutionalized their conceptions of a mongrelized God, and as time continued, a back-lash of Satanic religious philosophy began to pour out of the hot-beds of mongrelization. Babylon was corrupted. The Accadians of mongrel blood began using false religion as a political spring-board to fight against the Adamites of the ancient Sumerian society. The mongrels of Egypt began seeking conquest of that nation. As the Mesopotamian area began to succumb to the Satanic philosophy of the mongrelized, diabolical mind, we read of Tarah, the father of Abraham, fleeing Babylon to preserve his racial integrity. We read of the Melchizedek priesthood, an ancient order predicated upon racial purity that, in Abraham's day, continued to represent the true principles of white man's religion. But the backlash of mongrelization, using false religion as its most effective tool, continued to flood out of India through Babylon.

In the most ancient of times, when the ancient Aryans first saw that the original cosmotic world order that had been erected and constructed on the principles of God the Father, according to His laws of nature, begin to be corrupted through the great sin of race-mixing, the most ancient of Aryan writings began to speak of the Promised One, a Messiah, an Anointed One, who would come and restore the world order as had been intended by the Ancient of days, the Most High and Holy God. The ancient Aryans wrote of the Crisna. The Hebrews spoke of the Coming One as the Messiah, the Christ. Even as far away as Europe, the Druids looked for a Savior, a Redeemer. Even the Scynthians and Celts and the Persians and the Medes, and most all ancient nations of white men, had a mythos or a legend that called for a Great One who would end confusion and bring order out of chaos, who would set the world straight, who would turn the world back upright.

Thus, five hundred years before the advent of Jesus Christ, an Israelite known as Zoroaster took monotheistic teachings and the preserved and certain knowledge of the coming Christ to the Magean Persian religion, and although after his death these fire and sun worshipers, who called the sun Mithra and saw God in the flame of fire, continued to be corrupted, and corrupted even the teachings of Zoroaster, still they knew of the promised Messiah. In the New Testament, we see these ancient learned men coming to worship Jesus the Christ as an infant. It may be said at the time of Christ that the entire ancient world was rocking with anticipation. Even the soothsayers of Rome and Greece were prophesying of the Coming One.

It therefore becomes important to understand that that which the Bible claims for the ancient Israelites was, first, that God had chosen them as a nation to be the preservers of the purest and most uncorrupted knowledge of the coming Messiah. When we realize how much of the ancient literature of ancient religions and philosophies have perished throughout history, we truly begin to see that the hand of God has preserved for us our Bible, for God in His infinite wisdom knew that the other Aryan nations would be seduced by the Hedonistic, materialist, and Syncretic philosophies of the mongrel religions and that they would not preserve, in its total purity, without corruption, the most ancient truth of white man's religion.

So, we find during the five hundred years that preceded the advent of Jesus Christ a new wave of false religion making its way out of India through Babylon, always promoting deviate sexual practices, always promoting pornography, always institutionalizing prostitution, always promoting race-mixing, always claiming the brotherhood of all men and the fatherhood of God for all men. These philosophies made their way to Europe early. We read of Pythagoras making a pilgrimage to Babylon and India, returning to Greece to teach reincarnation. We read of the various mystery cult religions, each and every one traced to Babylon. We read of Aristotle and Plato and a variety of other historical figures, all gaining their so-called enlightenment from the mongrelized minds and philosophies of Babylon.

Thus, by the time of Christ, the influence of false, subjective, religious philosophy had already destroyed Israel as a nation. It had already institutionalized itself in Greece and Rome. So pervasive was false religious philosophy that only the most distant Germanic tribes, and those referred to as the lost sheep of the House of Israel could any longer conceive of God the Father in the true monotheistic sense of the word. But the promised Christ did come in the person and in the Adamic body of Jesus Christ of Nazareth. He came as the Redeemer of the children of God. He came to be the price of satisfaction, to satisfy the demands of the justice of God. He came to restore the children of God to a personal communion and relationship to God their Father, and most important, He came to set in motion the Government of God on earth and to cause the deliverance of the Final Revelation of Almighty God to Aryan man.

In the ancient world, false religion had reduced the knowledge of God to a distant, abstract concept. While the philosophy of atheism did prevail along with other similar subjective philosophies such as Epicureanism and Stoicism, still most of the world admitted the logic of the existence of God, so much so that they subscribed to a polytheistic philosophy, having many gods and demigods. But their polytheism was only a rational attempt to read the faint memories of the knowledge of God that still lingered on the Adamic hearts. The pantheistic, polytheistic philosophy best seen in the Gnostic versions of Christianity always sought to have many gods between man and the distant, Unknowable God. Much the same system is still seen among the so-called Christian Catholics with their variety of saints and making Mariam, the Mother of Jesus, into the mother of God. The point is that the knowledge of God as God the Father in a true, personal knowledge and relationship was virtually an alien concept to the ancient pagan world. Jesus Christ came to restore God the Father as a personal God to white men.

To accomplish this, God the Father used the things of His creation to bring about the restoration of communion with Him. God knew in the beginning of the foundation of the world that man would degenerate in His religious understanding to the point where He would be willing to worship men and deify most anything except the infinite Spirit-Mind of Almighty God our Father. When the Scripture speaks of the Spirit of God abasing Himself to dwell in the Adamic body of those He had created to be His servants, the Scripture is speaking of God's great act of compassion toward Adamic man. Man had left the true knowledge of God, and the only way that God could restore man to a true knowledge of Himself was to come in the form of a man and do for man what man could not do for himself.

Thus, the Scripture teaches that in the beginning, when God the Father created the first Adam, He made for Himself in the genes and chromosomes, or the loins of Adam, a body, in which He would one day tabernacle among men, and God the Father appointed a time in history when He would come in the person and bodily indwell the Second Adam and meet the requirements of His own justice, that He might redeem His chosen portion of the earth by purchasing the world with His own blood. Few have understood how Jesus was God. Jesus was God in the flesh because He was the Anointed One of Israel. To be Anointed, in its most basic and straightforward meaning, simply conveys the idea of being Anointed with the Mind of God. So what we are talking about is a predestined, Adamic body, set aside for the purpose of being fully indwelled with the Mind of God, an Adamic Son fulfilling the perfect Will of God that God had always intended for all His Adamic children. We are not talking about three different gods or three manifestations of one god, for God the Father is an infinite Mentality or Spirit-Mind. The Holy Spirit is His same Mind, and the Mind that indwelled Jesus Christ was the same God. There is no trinity of gods taught in the Scripture.

God Almighty is never spoken of in the effeminate gender. He is always spoken of in the masculine gender, and when He is spoken of anthropomorphically, it was always in reference to the body that He would house in the person of Jesus Christ. The Holy Spirit of God is not a feminine deity, as was conceived by the mongrel-minded perverters of nature in ancient India, which are now seeking to latch onto Christianity as a hideous cancer to a healthy body. There have always been Syncretic philosophies since the time of ancient Babylon and especially among the Magean Mithraites, which have sought to try and mongrelize the pure, white man's religion with the mongrelized creations of religion of ancient times. Much of the so-called "New Age" religious philosophies are nothing more than a rehashing of the ancient garbage that was first invented by mongrels at the time of the corruption of the ancient Aryans in India.

The so-called "New Age" philosophies are by no means "new." They were only new when they came into existence when Satan first set up his "new world order," described for us in the book of Genesis, when he mentally and physically seduced the woman Eve of the ancient Hebrews. The point is that white men must return to the pure Word of God as delivered to us in the Greek. They must accept it and believe it if they are to survive as a racial entity or people in the earth. The mongrels have sought for centuries to corrupt the Word of God, destroy the racially-conscious message of Christianity, and form Christianity in their own mongrelized image. The mongrel has no knowledge of God, he is only a pretender, a counterfeiter, and a liar. God Almighty can have no communion with that which He did not create, nor with lesser animals that He never intended to have communion with and were never created for that purpose. The only way to restore the truth of God's Word is for men to awake and realize the extent of the assaults of the confusion of Babylon upon their own Aryan religion.

In ancient Israel, the anointing of oil symbolized what people understand in Judeo theology to be the Holy Spirit. In a full context understanding of the Word of God, the Holy Spirit in the language of men is in reference to the Mind of God. So the way in which Jesus Christ was the Son of God is, first, that He was of the racial seed chosen by God; and second, that He completely and fully identified with the judgments, attitudes, and beliefs of God, His Father; and third, that He was completely, to the fullest capacity, literally, bodily, indwelled with the very Mind of the Living God. The word Emmanuel means God with us. God was in the body of Jesus Christ, a Son, Whom God had begotten. The idea conveyed in calling Him the Second Adam is that He was the second perfect Son of God to ever walk in a mortal body on the face of the earth. Unlike the first Adamics, created in perfect communion with the Mind of God, the Second Adam did not fail His mission; He did not capitulate to the mentality of the mongrelized mind of Satanic evil, and He walked in perfect obedience, even to physical death, to the principles, laws, and will of God the Father.

No sooner had Christ come and accomplished His mission, suffering spiritual death for the Adamic race and becoming their Redeemer, inaugurating and setting in motion His Government, than the assaults of false religions and the antichrist mind of the mongrelized had began to try to pervert the governmental establishment of Christianity, even though Christ Himself and His Apostles had emphatically and clearly warned of false and antichrists (Mat. 24:23-27).

Thus, Christ and the Apostolic Government of Christianity claim to be the Final Revelation of Almighty God the Father to Adamic man. Christianity emphatically claims the exclusive right to be the Final Revelation, and because of this, there can be no "new revelation" beyond that which is revealed in Christ Jesus (cf. John 1:14, 14:9; II Cor. 4:3-4; Col. 1:19-28; Heb. 1, 2; I Jo. 5:20; Jude 3). Thus, according to the most ancient prophecy and teachings of Aryan man, the Christ came once and for all time. He has brought order out of the chaos and confusion; He has halted the religious mongrelization process streaming from those first race-mixers of ancient times for every Aryan, Adamic man who will accept and believe in the Finished Work of Jesus Christ. There is no perversion or false precept of mongrelized religion that is not answered in the New Covenant of Jesus Christ. The early Christians dealt with every conceivable problem that white men have been assaulted with.

Thus, the Christian Scriptures meet all of white men's needs and thoroughly furnishes them unto all good works, meaning the good works of God. It tells us clearly that there is no brotherhood of religions (Gal. 1:8; II Jo. 10, 11). There is no reincarnation, either of Jesus or others (Heb. 9:26-27). There is no other means whereby men may rationalize their salvation, other than Jesus Christ, for He has said that He is the Way, the Truth, and the Life, and that no man can come to God the Father except through Him. Jesus Christ and His Government are the Final Revelation of the Unmongrelizable God to Aryan man. It therefore becomes important for men to understand the ramifications of these and all other claims made by the New Covenant of Jesus Christ, for if they refuse to believe and follow God's Appointed Savior of the white race, then as a majority of white men, they shall perish from the face of this earth and be murdered and killed by the enemies of God. For what is true of you and I as individuals is also true of the sons of God collectively.

If you and I, though born racially pure of the racial, Adamic family of the Living God, do not as individuals believe and conform ourselves to the leadership of God's Appointed Savior and Captain of our Salvation, then the Bible declares in explicit, unmistakable language that regardless of our birthright, we would perish as do the enemies of God. He that believes is not damned, but he that does not believe is damned already because he does not believe in the only-begotten Son of God. It is not enough simply to be born Adamic or of the race of Israel, for God's Word teaches us clearly that those Israelites who refused to follow the ordained Government of God but chose to follow men like Kore perished because they were stiff-necked and rebellious. Those who teach the universal salvation of all white men simply because they are born in white bodies and twist the theology of Calvin and others of mongrelized mind must do so by throwing away a great portion of the Word of God, for the Bible declares in clear and explicit statements, in a great number of Scriptural witnesses, that a child of God can indeed fall from the favor of God the Father.

It is clear that the subjective minds of men are continuously inventing perversions of Scripture, all in an effort to circumvent the clear, expressed teachings of God's Word. No matter how sincere, no matter how patriotic sounding, all who deviate from the teachings of the Scripture do not have the Holy Spirit of God and are designated by the Word of God as being of a carnal mind, at enmity or at war with the Living God, and in need of making peace with God the Father. It comes down to this: white men will either do things God's Way, or they will perish, not only as individuals in regards to their personal salvation, both racially and spiritually, but if the majority of white men continue to walk in rebellion to the Word of God, to whatever degree or for whatever reason or weakness or flaw that they may have in their character, then they are aiding and abetting the enemies of God and aiding in the destruction and murder of the white race.

All false religionists who deviate and pervert the Word of God are criminals and are just as guilty of the murder of the children of God, inasmuch as they aid the enemies of God through false propaganda and mongrelized thinking, as any natural enemy that has ever walked the face of the earth. Those who criticize the mongrel Jew but who also blaspheme the Living God and preach their Zionistic world order and seek the murder, enslavement, and subjugation of every white man, yet in their minds and behavior do the same things that the Jews do, can they be called anything but hypocrites? Those who pervert the Word of God, who set-up phony standards of what constitutes Christianity, are they any less the enemies of God the Father than the Judeos that they so vehemently criticize?

There are those who deny the expressed claim of the Scriptures that they are the Final and Complete Revelation of the Living God in that they subscribe to phony religious and political philosophies and impose on the race of God.

religious standards and requirements that God Himself does not require, all in an effort to make merchandise of God's people. Do they not do more harm to the white race and aid and abet in its murder more than even those deceived white men who are sold-out to phony political philosophies of democracy, that serve like faithful dogs a vicious establishment of evil? Are not phony preachers who claim to be of racial consciousness, yet seek to make Jews out of God's race, are not they more guilty of the blood of Christ than those who confess to be the opponents and enemies of the Living God? From God's point-of-view, the white race is perishing for one reason: not because of the ingenuity and power of mongrels, but because most every individual white man is a traitor to the Living God and making war on God by perverting His Word.

The white race is perishing because they have not believed in God's Appointed Savior, the Christ. No, my friends, there is no compromising the declaration of the Finished Work of Jesus Christ, for He was either Who He said that He was, or the white race has no God and no authority for its racial survival. Whenever the teaching of the finished work of Jesus Christ is compromised, it opens the door to Talmudic, Jewish, aesthetic philosophies. It is as certain as night following day that those practicing self-righteous asceticism and espousing Jewish interpretations of the Scripture, causing men to be slaves of Mosaic ritual, are always identified as men who deny the Finished Work of Jesus Christ. They set-up phony standards of food laws, holy days, and various rituals that are not taught or sanctioned in the New Covenant of Jesus Christ. In ignorance, they argue about law that they themselves do not understand, and in the process, blatantly deny clear and explicit statements of Jesus Christ and His Apostles.

In the end, no matter what they call themselves, no matter how racially-conscious they claim to be, they always wind-up welcoming mongrels into their assemblies, and their subjective religious philosophy that denies the objective standards of the clear statements of the faith once delivered always results in their compromising the principles of racial blood. They speak only of a few issues. They will preach against homosexuals. They will speak for hours on the necessity of good health. They will take Scripture out of context to re-establish for their followers the necessity of feast-days. But one need only scan their communion and look upon the countenance of their faces and eyes to realize that their destiny is mongrelization.

It does not matter what degree of perverted religious philosophy or what religious philosophy we adopt in rebellion to obedience to the New Covenant, if we go to the left or to the right, if we add to or take away, if we fail to study God's Word in total context, if we butcher the Scripture by taking out of context, the end of such activities is spiritual death and racial death to those who refuse to faithfully follow the voice of God's Appointed Savior. God has not promised salvation to perverts or deviants, regardless of what degree they may deviate from His Word.

The standard upheld by the New Covenant is all or nothing, for we are speaking of life and death. It is therefore the willingness through unbelief of white men to compromise the essential principle of the Finished Work of Jesus Christ that has led the white race to the brink of extermination. The road to victory is the path of salvation declared in the New Covenant. It is to stand firm and unshakable on the Final Revelation of God Almighty to Aryan man. It is to follow God's Appointed Savior of the white race, Jesus Christ. It is to declare, without compromise, the one blood, one persuasion, one Anointed Nation that Christ came to give us. Anything less is to be of a mind rejected by God. Anything less is to aid and abet the enemies of God. There is only one way to resurrect the white race from the death of their minds, and that is to call them to the unity of the racial faith of Jesus Christ; to tear down the strongholds and false fortresses of phony theology; to fight the good fight of the persuasion of God; to proclaim the truth, for only the truth will unite the white race.

Only the truth, without compromise, will change the minds of those who have been seduced in their minds, with their brains stained with the semen of Satan. Only God and His Spirit of Truth can wash away the stain of the mongrelized mind. Only God can give the sanity so desperately needed by the white race for them to understand their destiny and purpose on this earth. Only then will the white race rise up to rule and reign as the Anointed Nation of the Living God, to truly fulfill their destiny of dominion, to save this godless world from becoming a global Calcutta of disease and filth and mongrelization. If white men want to know what the mind of Satan has in store for the entire planet, let them see the streets of Bombay and Calcutta. Let them study a nation drenched in the misery of mongrelization that is the quintessential end product of Satanic religion. Let them see degradation and misery and starvation and hell on earth.

But Satan has blinded the eyes of the majority of white men. He has hidden the truth of their sonship as the sons of the Living God from them as a race for many generations. He has erected false political philosophies and demanded the obedience of men to man-made laws and philosophies, teaching that man-made laws and philosophies are to supersede the laws of the Living God. Modern white men walk in a vacuum of utter ignorance, believing Jewish lies. They are taught that the constitutions of their nations and the laws of their courts are to be held higher than the laws of God. Babylon does not only manifest itself in corrupt religion, but also in corrupt political philosophy. Babylon is the confusion of corruption and it can only be known and understood as it is contrasted with the objective truth of the New Covenant of the Son of the Living God.

Ignorance is that which sustains it. It thrives in a vacuum of ignorance and confusion that it perpetually creates. There is only one truth, one God, one infinite Mind of Pure Reason and Sanity, but it requires absolute loyalty and absolute obedience in belief in order to be understood. It requires forsaking all else. It requires having no other gods but the Living God. It requires being loyal only to God our Father. The Word of God claims for itself to never come back void or without effect when it is proclaimed in truth, and when it falls upon the minds and hearts of the good soil of the white, Adamic race. The reason that we perish as a people is because men refuse to proclaim the truth in the purity of the Word of God. They always want to adulterate the Word with some subjective philosophy, usually spawned by a heart of disbelief in their own personal, psychological makeup.

What then is the answer to a world of Babylonian confusion? Where then is the road to the victory that the God who cannot lie has said belongs to the white race only for the taking? The answer is found in believing the New Covenant of the Lord Jesus Christ. The answer is to follow Christ and no other. The answer is for every white man who has ears to hear and eyes to see to unite behind the leadership of the Son of God without compromise. The answer is for the white race to become of one mind and one accord in walking in the Government and being governed by the Word of the Living God. Men and brothers, this requires a conscious decision on the part of every individual white man to make his individual peace with the Living God.

If you are a white man hearing this message and you truly understand, then I beg you at this hour, as God's messenger, for you to purpose in your heart to fulfill your individual destiny as a racially pure child of God to bend the knee and prostrate yourself before the King of kings and the Lord of lords, and ask God to baptize your mind with the Baptism of the Fire of His Word that you might not be an enemy of the Living God. I ask every white man not to follow me, but to follow the Master; not to walk in our communion, but to walk in communication with the Living God. We are not here to play religious games, but to build a nation. We are not here to use religion as a philosophy to escape our responsibilities. We are not here to capitulate to the enemies of God, or to be side-tracked from our destiny as a people. We are here to do the Will of God on earth as it is in His Heavenly Government, and all who refuse through subjective excuses, deny the very blood that Christ paid for the right to institutionalize His Government.

I ask every white man to seek the approval of the Mind of God through the study of their Father's Word, to have their minds washed white as snow, to replace every alien word, concept, and idea that the mongrel minds of this world have placed in their brains, and to allow the Spirit of Truth, the Spirit of True Wisdom, to conform their minds to the very character and image and every reflection of the Mind of the Living God. For this is the reasonable service of every white man, and I tell you as God's messenger that if every white man who may hear or read this message will humble himself and make his peace with God and purpose in his heart to walk in the Government of God's Word, then you will see the daily murder of our race come to a halt. You will see the avowed enemies of God subjugated and prostrate at your feet. You will see justice march through this land. You will see true brotherhood brought about in the office of the Sons of God, that the hearts of the true white men have longed for for ages. You will see the prison doors flung open and the righteous set free. You will see love and sacrifice that the world has never seen. You will see the Government of God come to fruition on the earth, and God shall raise up men and empower them to do mighty deeds of valor and wisdom that have hereto before only been imagined.

I tell you, my brothers, God is knocking at the door of the white race. God is knocking at the door of your heart; if we will but let Him in, He will feast with us, He will restore to us all that He intended for us from the foundation of the world.

In conclusion, I would say that I know that the time of the nations has come in. We have marched forth into the latter reign, for our God has worked great miracles of restoration in these last days. He has restored to us a true knowledge of the racial truth of His Word. He has given us great understanding of the glorious counsel of His Word. And so I would say to you, stand like a tree planted by the water and if all around you will not be loyal, will not stand like men, but falter and fail, you who are separated unto the Living God through His Word are very precious to your Master, for you are the nucleus of a great nation, for God will have His Way, but He will preserve His faithful, and if the majority of our race will not hear His message, He will vanquish them as He shall all of His enemies. For I tell you as God is my witness, He shall put His enemies under His feet. So stand in the promises of the God Who cannot lie, because if you stand only by yourself as an individual or a family, if you are the only one, then you are very precious to your Heavenly Father and He will not desert you, because in your existence, you justify His love and His choice of the white race.

Let all men who will do the Will of God on earth as it is in the Government of Heaven pray diligently for their race and for the establishment of the Anointed Nation. May the Spirit of Separation empower each and every one of you in your part in bringing to fruition the Government of God on earth.

Who Are The Innocent?

In the natural world, nature demands the definition of innocent be applicable to those of whom no responsibility is required. In other words, infants and little children and those incapable of understanding that which is required for true understanding of their responsibilities relating to themselves and their society and God. This would include the feeble in mind, the mentally retarded, and those impaired to have the ability to think in rational thought. Life in the natural world is not static. It is in continuous motion of time. By the time any normal child, male or female, is of any reasonable, mature age, and having been taught and acquired sufficient knowledge of the norms and standards of their society, they are not only held responsible for their conduct and thinking by their parents, but by the society at large. For this is the way of nature and the laws of nature among men, and these have been recognized standards of what would constitute a moral innocence even before recorded history.

Upon these basic premises have social laws, and a variety of philosophies, been erected. But these principles only begin to answer the question, Who are the innocent? Like it or not, Adamic man has been touched and communicated with by the Living God, and there is a far greater standard of that which constitutes innocence than the finite understanding that man can conceive in his rational or irrational thinking. When we turn to the written record that conveys to us the Mind of the Living God, wherein norms and standards and moral precepts are concerned, we find the judgment of God passed upon all. The Bible says that all have sinned or failed and come short of the reputation of Almighty God. The word sin literally means failure, but its literal sense only begins to convey the scope of its meaning, for it carries with it the idea that man has failed to keep the laws of the Living God.

Thus, the Bible conveys its true meaning and definition by telling us that sin or failure, in principle, is the transgression of the law. The law spoken of is the precepts and principles of Almighty God, whether conveyed to us in His written revelation of His perfect mind, or in the nomenclature and architecture and design of His created nature. Therefore we come face to face with the judgment balance of the Word of God, and we learn that all are accounted guilty before the justice of the Living God. This moral precept and judgment of the God of the Universe supersedes any and all man-made precepts of understanding, for it is a self-evident fact that only God Almighty has the right to pronounce anyone innocent in the laws of nature created by God. Children and the feeble-minded are universally accounted innocent. But the law of God is written for those capable of rational thought, and it has concluded that all are guilty of failing to keep the moral precepts contained in the reputation of God's Word. This precept addresses man's total moral being. It is concerned with his thought processes and the estate of His mind as well as his behavior. By this standard, a man stands convicted as an enemy of God whether his thought behavior has actually been acted upon in physical behavior or not.

The Word of God is not merely concerned with the regulating of the physical behavior of men and women, but cuts right to the heart of the matter and stands in judgment of the inner man, looking into the deep dark recesses of man's mind, and therefore eliminates all pleas of innocence based upon physical behavior. In ancient Israel, men could keep the social laws demanded by Moses. They could spend their whole life religiously adhering to the Sabbath laws and still be as vile and filthy in the sight of God as the most wretched creature and criminal in their society. Not because they ever allowed their dark thoughts to break out into the actions of behavior, but because their hearts were deceitfully wicked above all things. In other words, their minds were at enmity with God. Phony religion tells men that as long as they behave themselves and conduct themselves according to a religious or political behavior that is deemed right according to their denomination or religious beliefs or subjective philosophies, that their good moral behavior is some how an insurance against their falling into the hands of an angry God. But the Word of God totally denies such phony pretenses. It declares all carnally-minded men to be enemies of the Living God and therefore at war with God Himself.

The Word of God declares God, Almighty Sovereign and Justfully Right, to be the only One in the universe capable of declaring who is innocent in His sight, or who has truly made peace with God. The failure of men to declare the truth of the justice of God is one of the ways in which men perpetuate false religion, and false religion is always recognized by its desire and design to set up phony standards and to rob God of His sovereign right to give absolution to those who have made themselves enemies of the Living God. Christian Separatists understand that no man, no pope, no religious denomination can give an individual peace with God. All men in opposition to God are God's enemies, regardless of their race or creed or political philosophy. Those who have not made peace with God through God's Appointed Peacemaker Jesus Christ are at war with God. They are living, breathing, enemies of the Living God. Jesus Christ said, "You are either with Me or against Me." There is no middle ground, there is no playing religious games, there is only being with Christ or against Him, for Christ is God's Appointed Savior, and there is no way for the race of Adam to come to their Heavenly Father except through the Lord Jesus Christ. This means that all who are not with Christ, in Christ, and following Christ by following His Word and teachings in obedience, are enemies of the Living God.

One of the major false assumptions by the presumptuous theologians is overlooking the fact that the Word of the Living God was addressed to Adamic man, written for Adamic man, only, and is the Mind of God conveyed to us in His written word. We are speaking of the Word of God as conveyed to us and contained in the ancient Hebrew, then given to us in the Greek Septuagint, and finally given to us in the New Testament of Jesus Christ, which was and is the Final Revelation of Almighty God speaking to an Adamic man. This is an essential Separatist principle. Any theology in opposition to this Biblical fact is in opposition to the Living God. The so-called fundamentalists never list this essential Bible truth as important to the understanding of the Scripture, because if they did, their entire house of cards they call theology would come falling down like the walls of Jericho. Nevertheless, it is the absolute truth that God's Word is written to Adamic man only, and it is only Adamic man that is called to make peace with God their Father. Because of this great favor conveyed upon the race of Adam by the gracious will of God the Father, all Adamic men who have not and who have refused to make peace with God the Father are far greater criminals and enemies of the Living God than even the non-created beings and the lesser created beings who have no opportunity to even enter communion with the Living God.

All white men who are not in the communion of the Word of the Living God are referred to in God's Word as twice-dead children of hell. They are held to a higher accounting of justice than the ignorant and natural enemies of the Living God, because to whom much is given, much is required. Therefore, every member of the race of Adam who aids and abets and compromises with the natural enemies of God is a far greater criminal than any mongrel who is a product of the murder of race-mixing, or any beast of the field acting in his tribal instinct. When men are brought face to face with these facts of the justice of God, they run to their phony theologies to justify themselves, to cover their nakedness with counterfeit religion.

What then does it mean to be at peace with God, and how do we make peace with God? The answer to this question is a simple one. A man must believe the Word of God to the point of trust and obedience. He must identify with God the Father in taking on the judgments and beliefs and norms and standards of God the Father so that he truly becomes a son of the Living God. This is accomplished according to the justice of God's Word only by claiming the satisfaction of the blood of Jesus Christ paid to the Justice of God for our redemption and deliverance. This means and demands the Baptism of Fire in the renewing of the Mind. This literally means having our minds washed clean and pure by the Word of the Living God, replacing every alien thought or concept or idea that is at enmity with the Mind of God with the pure and holy thoughts and judgments of the Justice of God, until our minds are renewed in thinking like our Father. This demands a point in time for a man to sit in judgment of himself and to admit that he has sinned, that he has failed, and then to repent, to turn around from the works of death and the kingdom of hell, and to walk into the Government of God and take up the works of Justice. Nothing less will constitute a Christian believer. No lesser standard can justify the unjustifiable. Only the holy blood of God Himself, shed as a ransom for the Adamic race, can render a man just before a Just God. Only absolute obedience to the teachings and principles of the justice of God as revealed in His Word can make a traitor to the Living God no longer an enemy. Only the Mind of God, the Mentality of God, can renew the Adamic mind, and lead, guide, and teach a man, until that man comes to the maturity of the measure and stature of Christ. Anything less is phony, counterfeit, confusion of Babylon. Any lesser standard that pronounces phony absolution of hateful acts of war against the Holy and Just God is only excuse-making on the part of stupid men.

But someone will say, like the rich young ruler, "All my life I have kept the laws of God and I have never been at enmity, at war, with the Living God." But God says to the self-righteous, "Liar," that they deceive themselves, because they will not hear the standard of justice demanded by the Word of God. The excuse maker who plays religion, and even though his physical behavior may not have at any time resulted in an outward breaking or crossing over of the laws of God, the justice of God says to that man, "Did you at any time, ever, sanction or condone any godless behavior by anyone else, either through your approval or through your silence? Did you ever sit by while the enemies victimized your race?" And the liar would answer, "No," and the Justice of God would say, "When your political representatives voted to murder your race through integration, did you storm their meeting, did you speak up when the media broadcast lies about the reputation of the Living God, did you act in defense of the blood of Jesus Christ? When they voted for homosexuals to be admitted to your local church, what did you do? When they blasphemed God in a thousand different ways, what did you do? Do you not understand that faith or persuasion without works is dead, because it is alone?"

Mental assent and verbal affirmation is meaningless and dead as a doornail without actions. The Christian faith does not only demand a prescribed and set belief system of the mind, but also physical behavior of the body that is in conformity to the Word of the Living God. Therefore, the Word of God concludes that all have sinned, all have failed and come short of the reputation or that which is reputed of the Living God in His Word. So who are the innocent?

The Bible says that the innocent are only those who have made peace with God and who are functioning, alive, in His communion. This fact explains why the devil is so interested in creating phony churches. He wants to number himself among the innocent because he is afraid of the sons of God. Therefore, it becomes important to know what the Bible actually teaches on how the race of Adam are to make their peace with God. It also becomes important to understand what constitutes true communion or being in communion with the Mentality of the Living God, because the devil is very busy setting-up phony standards, robbing men of their birthright, and creating a world of religious confusion. We have already spoken in reference to how a man makes peace with God and ceases to be His enemy. Now let us consider what the true standard of God's communion is. That standard is contained in the New Covenant of Jesus Christ.

The freedom from being an enemy of God that is afforded in God's Communion is defined by every word that has proceeded out of the mouth of God. To be in Communion, to be a real Christian, means to be in complete obedience to the teachings of Jesus Christ and His Apostles, without any exception, without adding to or taking away from the principles taught of the laws of Jesus Christ. Any man who seeks to make peace with God but refuses to go on into walking in God's Communion has believed a lie. There is no such thing as being at peace with God, made innocent in the sight of God by the blood of Jesus Christ, without walking in the obedience of the Communion of Christ. But how would we recognize God's true communion? Again, the answer is really simple, you read and study the Word of God! Any Spirit Mind that contradicts the principle taught in the totality of the New Covenant of Jesus Christ is a mentality or spirit of the antichrist.

Therefore, it is by their fruits, the fruit of their body, the fruit of their lips, the fruit of their mind, the fruit of their actions, that you will know those who are truly God's Separated Ones. The devil does one of two things regarding this Biblical fact. He either sells men a phony church philosophy or He leads men into atheism to deny that God has perpetuated His Government on earth, and it is the same stick of deception. The phony church and the church-haters are equally in opposition to the true Body Politic of the Living God.

Now, we come to answer some of the practical ramifications of the truth of God's Word, and we shall categorically list the responsibilities that are implied by the truths that we have already brought forth:

(1) God chose the white Adamic race and He favored them, and especially you and I as individuals, to be His chosen people. This was a decision of His justice made in eternity past or before the world was framed, and anyone who has a problem with that just and true statement is an avowed enemy of the Living God, convicted as such by the Living Word of Almighty God.

(2) Therefore, because God has chosen Adamic man and bestowed upon him the favor of God that he might walk in the purpose and for the achievement of the purposes of God, any Adamic man who, because of the motions of life, is found guilty as a criminal and an enemy of God by the Word of God, is inexcusable before the Living God for his failure to make peace with God the Father. Moreover, the Adamic man at war with God in his carnal mind, which means to have a mind other than the Mind of God, is as guilty as any mongrel Jew of the murder and of the innocent blood of the Son of God and stands convicted by the Word of God, caught red-handed with the blood of Christ on his hands, because anyone aiding and abetting the enemies of God in their godless blasphemies and murders, and especially those of the race of Adam, are held to a higher justice than other beings because of the favor of God toward the Adamic race.

(3) Therefore, all enemies of the Living God, whether natural or unnatural, are convicted by the Word of God as being worthy of death, whether their actions or activities directly break the laws of God or whether they aid and abet those breaking the laws of God. They are just as guilty and as great a criminal in the sight of God whether their physical actions or mental actions were passive or aggressive.

What then is the moral implication of these Biblical facts? Let us consider a hypothetical situation. Suppose a group of sons of God had formed an organization to fight the enemies of God. Let us suppose that such a group was secretive and clandestine in nature. Let us suppose further that this small brotherhood espoused the philosophy that the only way that righteousness could prevail would be by eliminating the unrighteous beliefs of the majority of sheepish people who follow the trends and times in their moral behavior. In other words, they believed that the majority of Judeo and phony Christians live in fear of whoever has the political will and power of death.

Let us further suppose that they believed that through political war acts, commonly called terrorism, they could put the fear of God into a great percentage of the population through selected acts of violence, and that they further believed that since the majority of people live in fear of death and that the devil uses the fear of death, meaning the right of the state to execute, that this fictitious group of loyal subjects of the King of kings, determined to liberate a number of their comrades from political imprisonment by kidnapping a number of college students from Baptist or Methodist theological seminary. Let us further suppose that the number was ten and that they were composed of eight true Adamics, confirmed by their countenances, one Jew, and one Negro. Moreover, let us further surmise that it would be necessary, in order to gain the cooperation of the Federalists to releases their comrades from prison, that this group believed that they would have to show resolve and resolution of determination by executing one of the hostages.

Most shallow thinkers who have little knowledge of the actual moral and justice standards of the Word of God would immediately argue that the one to be first executed should be the Christ-hating, mongrel Jew. Others, whose personal prejudices cloud their political and moral judgments would argue that the Negro would be the most just choice for execution. Some would argue that the Negro, a lesser creation, sometimes called the Beast of the Field, would be of lesser value than all the rest, but that argument overlooks the fact that the true Negro was a creation of Almighty God. Others would argue that the Christ-hating Jew, the traditional enemy of all that is sacred and holy, would be the logical choice since he is not a creation of God, but rather a creation of disobedient men, and is a non-created being. The same argument could be made toward Hindu Indians and many Orientals.

But few are those numbered among the white wing who would look upon the white Judeos whose entire lives have been dedicated to blaspheming the Scriptures, promoting blasphemous translations, compromising the true teachings of Christ, and politically compromising with the enemies of God to promote the destruction of the white race; few would see the self-hating whites, standing with the murdered blood of Christ dripping from their hands, as the greater enemies of the white race, and still even fewer would see things from the point-of-view of God and through the eyes of God to understand that none among the ten were innocent before the Living God.

The theological question at issue is the justice of God, a subject most men refuse to address, yet Separatism demands the understanding of it. These things serve to illustrate that there are no innocent people except those who have made peace in God's Way, and the failure of white men to come to grips with the facts demanded by the Justice of God is in truth that which has rendered the white man impotent, powerless, and prostrated at the feet of his enemies.

The phony doctrine of universal salvation, predicated upon ignoring and twisting the Scriptures, that blatantly denies that white men can fall from the favor of God or be lost to the family of God, is another favorite lie that not only twists the Scriptures but speaks in opposition to the see-able reality around us. "Not all men have persuasion," says the Scriptures, and over and over again, the Final Revelation of Christ declares that there is no salvation, not only in the present, but in the future, for those who will not bend the knee to Christ in confession of their sin and confirmation of their loyalty. This is not popular. It declares Calvin a liar. It tears down the stronghold of the Catholic Church and the once saved, always saved Baptists. Nevertheless, it is the truth. There are no gypsies, OR JEWS in the Government of God. There are no men who have not received the Baptism of Fire to have the renewing of the mind in the Government. In plain words, God has no children who disagree with their Father.

It is popular among certain Identity groups that all Israel will be saved. Taken out of context, as some delight in doing, they even go so far as to seek to prove that the devil himself will be saved by denying the Justice of God. It must be said that there is no difference in present preservation or eternal salvation. God does not just save the physical body, but He also saves the new man which He creates. The Doctrine of Salvation is one of the most misunderstood and misrepresented teachings in all the Word of God.

The reason you want the Word of God to have its perfect work in your life is for the salvation of the tens of millions of white men contained in your loins or in the loins of your brothers. For in their future physical bodies, those who receive the regenerating Word of God, God shall make them immortal through the blood of Christ, but without the natural body container, created by God, there is no hope of future generation's salvation, only the mundane death of mongrelization, alienated from the Mind of God.

Why do you want to be saved? In the present, is it only for your selfish desire for immortality and life-everlasting? While it is true that eternal life is an individual benefit, that is not the right motive for seeking the salvation of God, for it would be selfish. The truly baptized by fire know that the reason we should all desire to make peace with God and obtain salvation through Christ is that we might not aid and abet the enemies of God in destroying the future generations of the white race. On the other hand, those who fall for the phony Judeo salvations and are deceived, yet dismiss or minimize the racial truth of God's Word, and subscribe to a Narcissistic salvation theory, not only are they not saved now, but shall not be saved hereafter. This truth also destroys the lie of universal salvation.

Men are not born saved because they are white, nor did they, as intelligent entities, exist before they were conceived by their parents. Nor do they exist in the Mind of God before they have made peace with God, in reference to real life. No amount of twisting of the Scriptures, no number of theological gymnastics can do away with Adamic Man's personal responsibility to God the Father.

Who are the innocent? They are those who have made peace with God the Father, who have been washed in the Innocent Blood of Jesus Christ. As a Bible scholar, I know that the days are just before us when hundreds of thousands of white men will awaken to the truth of God's Word. I know this because the God who cannot lie has said it. He has told us that there is coming a day and an hour as the time of the nations is being fulfilled, that the true sons of God will awaken to their true identity, and they will come as God's messengers, executing His will, reaping a harvest by the fear of God, chopping down and burning the tares that have been allowed to grow among the race of God. The coming messengers will be men who have been matured by the Mind of God through His Word. They will see as God sees, they will think as God thinks, they will have the judgments of their Father. But the majority of men refuse to see as God sees. Why? Because their minds have been clouded with false religious and patriotical philosophy. Their eyes are not upon the laws of God but upon the man-made laws of their so-called democratic nations.

Those who exalt Supreme Court rulings or a degenerated constitution or flag above the laws of God have made that flag or that body of laws their God. They sit in utter hypocrisy, pronouncing judgment, and as they do, they manifest their enmity to the Living God. I spoke earlier of the hypothetical band of revolutionaries who wrestled with the problem of innocence. If these men were caught by the Federalists, they would be tried as criminals. They would be labeled as terrorists, not as soldiers. They would be tried as common criminals and the state would argue that they would be tried according to the laws of the land, that, though invented by men and written by men, are somehow deemed in the minds of the American people to supersede the laws of God.

False religious philosophy is the backbone of false political philosophy. My point is that although the United States as a political body has killed hundreds of thousands of so-called "innocent civilians" at Nagasaki and Hiroshima, and millions more in their vicious bombing of Germany, these same people, deceived into utter hypocrisy, would call those hypothetical soldiers of God "terrorists" and would never afford them the dignity of being tried by military law. But yet, in hypocrisy, though their own government is guilty of the most heinous crimes against the white race and against civilians, they would still try each and everyone of them under the logic of Jewish democracy, and in the process continue to reinforce and establish an establishment of evil by declaring that the Jewish courts, predicated upon Jewish thinking, supersede the laws of God.

Today, our prisons are filled with good and decent Aryan, white men because America as a nation has turned away from the laws of God, specifically in the teachings of Jesus Christ, and has erected an edifice of an evil establishment, predicated upon mongrelized, Jewish-thinking that is absent of clarity of thought or logic. Today, in the name of democracy and multi-culturalism, many of the best of the white race is being made to endure the living death of virtual hell-on-earth of American prisons, simply and purely for the sole reason that the Jewish merchants and all the materialistic Hedonists, whose God is their belly, can bring in the pollution of aliens so that they can have a few more customers.

Truly, the love of money is the root of all evil, and all who have jumped into the materialistic bed to prostitute themselves to the mongrel Jew for monetary gain have failed to understand that their seducers are world Zionists bent and dedicated toward world mongrelization-conquest. And the same ones who have sold the beautiful youth of the Aryan race to ZOG dungeons have also sold their own children.

The sons of God will not subscribe to phony ethical and theological arguments. They will see clearly with the piercing vision of the Spirit-Mind of God. It will be too late in that hour that is approaching so fast for white men to plead innocence. Already, thousands of cell-groups are multiplying throughout the white world. They are apprehending with the clearest of vision the necessity of the Government of Christ.

The day of the resurrection of the sons of God is already upon us. For those who have eyes to see, the sinews are growing upon the dry bones now moistened and made alive by the Living Word of God. But this Body Politic that can now be seen through the glass dimly shall put on the skin of the parchment of the Word of God. These sons of God will hear no pleas of innocence from the enemies of God. They shall execute the righteous and just judgments of their Father. They will wear the white cross of their race and the crown of the law, and thousands and millions will fall by the Sword of their mouth.

God's avenging messengers will know neither family, nor friendship, nor love, nor romantic philosophy, nor mislaid empathy, but only the standard of the Word of God. They will be virgins in their mind, unmolested by seducing spirits. These are but a few of the prophesied consequences of blasphemy and ungodliness. The world order of Satan, the Babylon of Scripture, will fall in that hour and in that day. I wonder, dear friend, dear white brother or sister, have you made your peace with God your Father? Can you confess with your tongue and your mouth that you are walking in true communion according to every precept commanded by God your Father? For if you cannot, and you love father, mother, brother, sister, or the things of this world more than you love God your Father, then I can assure you that you will not escape the justice of an angry God.

It is utter foolishness to make war with Almighty God, for it is a war that you and I as individuals cannot win. Men can run and seek to hide in vain philosophy of atheism. They can do all in their power to avoid their purpose for existing, but still, in the end, it is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of an angry God. If you are foolish and refuse to hear your Father, the Father who has loved you even when you were His enemy, you will be destroyed, either by the enemies of God whom He now allows to prosper as a judgment against your race, for if you compromise with the enemies of God, they will destroy you, or else you will be destroyed by the sons of God as they rise to take dominion to walk triumphantly in the establishment of justice. Either way, if you are at enmity with God, your destruction is certain.

Therefore, I invite you, as a priest of the Living God, to take this opportunity at this time to confess your failures, to claim the blood of Christ as your only hope of reconciliation to the Living God and reunion in the communion with God your Father. I invite you to flee to the ark of safety and make your calling and election known. There is but one city of refuge to flee to at this hour, and that is the New Jerusalem.

Wherever you are, whatever your circumstances, simply call upon the authority of Jesus Christ, ask God's forgiveness and baptism through His appointed High Priest, Jesus Christ, then write me as your second witness and earthly hearer of your confession of faith, and the Christian Separatist Communion will aid you in every way in gaining the baptism of the fire of the Mentality of Almighty God. We will direct you to a Separated priest in your area of the order of Phineas, but whatever you do, make your decision today. Do not put it off. You have an appointed destiny. You have the birthright if you will act while the Holy Spirit lingers near your mind and heart to receive a full pardon for your failures and sins.

May you know the Living God as your Father. Amen . . .
